

You are allowed to team up with other people from your team for this exercise.

Try to think back on some of the important key conversations you have had previously in your life. In these conversations, do you think either you or the other person was applying the Think Win / Win mindset?

If so, can you describe exactly why you think this is the case?